

Communicate and Respond Faster with Riskconnect and AlertMedia

When every second counts, clear and coordinated communication makes all the difference. Riskconnect's partnership with AlertMedia seamlessly connects business continuity management and emergency communication workflows to help you streamline processes, reduce errors, and accelerate response during any disruption.

The AlertMedia Connector allows you to:

- Send AlertMedia emergency notifications natively from Riskconnect, eliminating the need to switch systems during a crisis.
- Keep contact lists continuously up-to-date by automatically syncing records from Riskconnect to AlertMedia, improving data accuracy and removing manual tasks.
- Dynamically populate notifications with pre-built templates from AlertMedia – including surveys, conference bridges, and variable tags – for smoother incident coordination.

Enhance your response
