

Riskconnect's GRC software gives you the visibility to identify and address uncertainty and achieve your business objectives.

Consolidate risk data. Bring all risk and compliance data into one source of truth that can be trusted by all.

Collaborate on action. Break down silos, streamline processes, and improve risk communication across risk, compliance, and audit professionals.

Make better decisions. Tap into the collective intelligence of cross-functional teams to make smart, rapid decisions that will mitigate risk – and capitalize on opportunities.

“With Riskconnect, you ask the question once and live off the answer a number of times. You have the ability to develop a common repository of answers from the business and knowledge from the functions that support the business. For us, it’s about bringing that entire continuum to life for the organization and connecting it. We’re a much more efficient organization.”

Bob Bowman
Chief Risk Officer | The Wendy’s Company
