

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM THIRD-PARTY MISSTEPS

Vendors and other third-party suppliers are critical to the success of most organizations – but they also pose considerable risk. The trick is to make sure your vendors have what they need to do the job well without compromising your company in the process. And the more vendors you have, the harder it is to keep tabs on it all. If something slips through the cracks, the consequences could be devastating.

A PROACTIVE APPROACH TO MANAGING THIRD PARTIES

Riskconnect's Third-Party Risk Management solution brings all of your vendor information together into one, cloud-based platform that monitors third parties throughout the entire relationship. The software tracks in real time everything that relates to third-party suppliers, including agreements, contracts, policies, and access credentials.

SIMPLIFIES THIRD-PARTY TRACKING

Automates workflows to save time and improve reliability.

IDENTIFIES VULNERABILITIES

Constructs appropriate questionnaires based on vendor type.

PROTECTS YOUR ORGANIZATION
