

Riskconnect for the TRANSPORTATION INDUSTRY

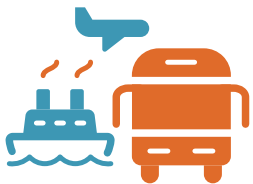

Riskconnect software helps you get in front of risk to reduce accident rates, improve performance, and build trust with both regulators and customers.

Find answers in seconds, not days. Centralize fleet, safety, claims, compliance, and ESG data for deeper insights and faster response times.

Prevent the preventable. Spot emerging issues, minimize losses, and manage complex regulations from one place so nothing slips through the cracks.

Stop cascading effects fast. See how risks correlate to quickly halt downstream effects that can slow response, trigger fines, increase insurance premiums, and damage your reputation.

Riskconnect gives us one platform to house all claims data from the cargo standpoint to the liability standpoint. We have all of the data together in one place. Because if you want to get accurate information, you need accurate data. To access that in one platform and utilize that to mitigate, minimize, or prevent accidents, it's critical to get it all under one roof.

Get in Front of Trouble

Preventable incidents – from warehouse fires to overturned rigs – can drive up insurance premiums and derail profits.

Riskconnect can help you quickly respond to incidents, efficiently manage claims, detect accident patterns, and evaluate litigation potential to keep people safe and operations on track.

Simplify Compliance

Intensifying safety rules and environmental mandates – along with customer demands for lower emissions and strong safety records – mean you must track and report your actions or risk steep penalties.

Riskconnect has built-in tracking to help you stay on top of OSHA, DOT, EPA, FMCSA, and other requirements, maintain a clear audit trail, and demonstrate transparency to regulators and customers.

Drive Operational Efficiency

Fewer manual tasks mean lower administrative costs, faster response times, and more time to devote to strategic opportunities.

Riskconnect automates time-intensive workflows and layers in AI intelligence to help you manage interconnected risks with end-to-end visibility across business units to strengthen operational agility, boost resilience, and protect your margins.
